

Appendix: Provide to foreign countries and handling in foreign countries

〈Provided to foreign countries based on your consent〉

We will provide personal information to a third party in the following recipient countries.

The following is an overview of efforts to protect personal information in each country and by third party.

Name of the recipient country	Information that serves as an indicator of whether or not there is a system for protecting personal information in the countries to which it is provided	Presence or absence of duties or rights of an entity that comply with the eight principles of the OECD Privacy Guidelines	Systems that may have a material impact on your rights and interests	Information on third parties to whom information is provided
(Not applicable)	-	-	-	-

〈Storage and handling of personal information in foreign countries〉

We handle personal information in foreign countries as follows.

(1) Use of cloud services

Name of foreign country (Location of cloud service provider)	Name of foreign country (Location of server)	System of foreign country
German Confederation	German Confederation	Germany is regarded as a foreign country which has a system concerning the protection of personal information that is recognized by the Personal Information Protection Commission to be at the same level as Japan in protecting the rights and interests of individuals.

(2) Entrustment of the handling of personal information to a third party in a foreign country

Name of foreign country	System of the foreign country	Contents of measures taken
(Not applicable)

(As of April 1, 2022)